Value-Added Information in Practice: What Practitioners Need to Know

This half-day learning session, hosted by the Ohio Education Research Center, is a follow up to the Examining Ohio’s Approach to Measuring Student Success symposium session #1: Value-Added Information’s Role in Classroom and School Improvement held on September 16, 2013.

What:
Learn about how value-added information works and how teacher value-added reports are interpreted, analyzed, and used from the practitioner perspective. This half-day learning sessions is designed to share information from the educator perspective.

Who:
Ohio higher education and educator-preparation faculty, researchers, policymakers, and others interested in continuing this important conversation.

Where:
The Conference Center at OCLC, Lakeside Room
6565 Kilgour Place
Dublin, OH 43017
(614) 764-6000 or 1-800-848-5878
oclc@oclc.org

When:
Thursday, December 12, 2013
8:30 a.m. Registration and Breakfast
9 a.m. – Noon Learning Session

Attend at no charge.
Seating is limited, so register now!

Hosted by:
The Ohio Education Research Center (OERC) in partnership with the Ohio Department of Education and Battelle for Kids.